50 TO CONSIDER AWARDING FREEDOM OF THE DISTRICT

Council received a report, which sought Members consideration of awarding a Freedom of the District.

The report outlined the process which had been followed to-date and the next steps should the Honour be granted.

Several Members spoke in support of the two nominations, which had been received and outlined the services and benefits the Unit brought to the District.

They were considered an exemplar organisation and Members were honoured and proud that their “home” was West Lindsey.

Having been proposed and seconded and with more than two thirds of those Members present voting in favour it was: -

RESOLVED that the Freedom of the District be awarded to the Royal Air Force Aerobatic Team (the Red Arrows).

The meeting concluded at 9.32 pm.
